City of The Colony News Release

The Colony, TX – January 3, 2012

City to Host Public Art Lecture

The Colony Cultural Arts Board, through funding from The Colony City Council and The Colony Community Development Corporation, commissioned a Cultural Arts Master Plan to establish goals for the future of the arts in The Colony. Now, the CAB is hosting a public art lecture to inform the public.

The purpose of this lecture is to enlighten the public about art and its role in the Cultural Arts Master Plan. This lecture will occur on Thursday, January 5th, 2011 at 7:00 p.m. in the City Council Chambers. All citizens with an interest in the arts are encouraged to attend. In addition, we ask you to notify your friends and family of this event so that awareness can be raised about this topic.

If you have questions about the Cultural Arts Master Plan you may email Brant Shallenburger at bshallenburger@thecolonytx.gov or call 972-624-3108.
